18th International Meeting of Slide Rule & Historic Calculating Instrument Collectors

SLIDE RULES for the TRADES

September 21st - 23rd, 2012

Bletchley Park, Milton Keynes, England

Venue

Bletchley Park Mansion

2012 is the year that the UK Slide Rule Circle is pleased to again host this regular annual event. For this meeting we have chosen Bletchley Park, home of the wartime codebreakers, as our main venue. Our main meeting will take place in the Library of the historic Victorian “Mansion”.

Special features

In addition to our formal meeting on the Saturday, 22nd September, during which we hope to present approximately 10 papers, it is also hoped to allow time for the short presentation of special “one-off” items according to demand and some light entertainment on the evening of the 21st.

Sunday, 23rd September provides the opportunity to take a guided tour of this historic site in the morning followed by a similar tour of the on-site National Museum of Computing including the small display of slide rules in the afternoon.

Waddesdon Manor

This Renaissance-style château was built by Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild to display his outstanding collection of art treasures and to entertain the fashionable world. The 45 rooms on view combine the highest quality French furniture and decorative arts from the 18th century with superb English portraits and Dutch Old Masters. The Victorian garden is considered one of the finest in Britain with its parterre, seasonal displays, fountains and statuary. At its heart lies the aviary, stocked with species once part of Baron Ferdinand's collection. Visit the new contemporary art gallery in the Coach House at the Stables.

Note: For details of Registration fees and other costs see the Registration Form.
